

Proud to be
GSTC Certified – Elevating Sustainable Travel Together!

The Traveller is thrilled to announce our certification by
The Global Sustainable Tourism Council (GSTC), officially recognizing us as
A GSTC-Certified Tour Operator in Singapore.

This milestone reflects our unwavering commitment to sustainable tourism and our dedication to creating travel experiences that positively impact both the environment and our local communities. As a GSTC-Certified Tour Operator, we are proud to champion responsible tourism practices that support Singapore's rich culture, vibrant heritage, and unique ecosystems—while giving back to the community we call home.

Here's a snippet of our sustainable initiatives

The Traveller's Walking Tours

Our walking tours promise to provide you with an authentic and immersive experience of Singapore's vibrant neighbourhoods and cultural precincts. By joining our tours, you're not just exploring the heart of the city—you're also playing a part in creating a positive impact, as well as reducing your carbon emissions.

Carbon Emissions Tracker

We have begun tracking the carbon emissions from our transport services to better understand our environmental impact. This initiative enables us to accurately measure our emissions and set clear, actionable goals to achieve meaningful reductions.

Partnerships with Our Local Communities

In 2025, we are deepening our commitment to supporting local communities. We are excited to announce our continued partnership with Dignity Kitchen, a social cause that helps empower the differently-abled within our community with relevant skills for the workforce, giving them a chance of living a prosperous life with full autonomy and confidence.
