

DIGNITY KITCHEN – Where local food meets social good

An all-in-one platform to experience local food and engage in a positive social impact at the same time. At the heart of our business is our approach to restoring dignity to the differently-abled and the disadvantaged through skills training and employment.

At Dignity Kitchen™ @ Boon Keng, we combine our passion for hawker food and the power of engaging the community to bring you several uniquely Singaporean experiences which include team bonding, creating awareness of workplace inclusion, social entrepreneurship and innovation.
