

We are excited to introduce the latest offerings from the iconic Raffles Hotel Singapore, a historic landmark that has been welcoming guests since 1887. Over the years, the hotel has hosted many famous guests, including writers, actors, and even royalty.

One of the most famous attractions at Raffles is the Long Bar, where the Singapore Sling was first created by bartender Ngiam Tong Boon in 1915. Your clients can learn about the history of this world-famous cocktail and even try their hand at mixing it themselves in the Singapore Sling masterclass.

For those looking for a classic Raffles experience, the Raffles Afternoon Tea is a must-try. Your clients can indulge in an array of delectable treats while enjoying the hotel's charming ambiance, which includes original tiled floors, antique furniture, and colonial-style ceiling fans.

In addition to the Long Bar and the Raffles Afternoon Tea, we highly recommend booking a table at one of the hotel's acclaimed restaurants. Jereme Leung offers a contemporary take on Cantonese cuisine, while Osteria BBR serves up classic Italian dishes with a modern twist. For a taste of authentic Indian cuisine, the Tiffin Room is the perfect choice.
